Greeting

Hymn

"O Come, All Ye Faithful"

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come and behold him, born the king of angels:

Refrain:

O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

The highest, most holy, light of light eternal, born of a virgin, a mortal he comes;
Son of the Father now in flesh appearing! Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God in the highest: Refrain

Prayer

P Lord God, we thank you for making this holy night shine with the true light of your Son. As we celebrate his birth as a human child, fill us with the joy of heaven. For he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Reading

Isaiah 9:2-7

Welcoming the Gospel

"Angels We Have Heard on High"

Angels we have heard on high,
sweetly singing o'er the plains,
and the mountains in reply, echoing their joyous strains.

Refrain:

Gloria in excelsis Deo;

Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heav'nly song? Refrain

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn king. Refrain

The Christmas Story: Part 1

Luke 2:1-14

Hymn

"Away in a Manger"

Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head;
the stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing; the baby awakes, but little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes.
I love you, Lord Jesus; look down from the sky and stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask you to stay close by me forever and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in your tender care and fit us for heaven, to live with you there.

The Christmas Story: Part 2

Luke 2:15-20

Hymn

"Go Tell It On The Mountain"

(The children come forward as the hymn is sung.)

Refrain

Go tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and ev'rywhere;
go tell it on the mountain
that Jesus Christ is born!

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, behold, throughout the heavens
there shone a holy light. Refrain

The shepherds feared and trembled when, lo, above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth. Refrain

Down in a lonely manger
the humble Christ was born;
and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain

Christmas Eve Message

(Following the message, the children return to their seats as we sing.)

Hymn

"I Am So Glad Each Christmas Eve"

I am so glad each Christmas Eve,
the night of Jesus' birth!
Then like the sun the star shone forth,
and angels sang on earth.

The little child in Bethlehem,
he was a king indeed!
For he came down from heav'n above to help a world in need.

He dwells again in heaven's realm,
the Son of God today;
and still he loves his little ones and hears them when they pray.

I am so glad each Christmas Eve!
His praises then I sing;
he opens now for ev'ry child
the palace of the king.

And so I love each Christmas Eve,
and I love Jesus too;
and that he loves me ev'ry day
I know so well is true.

Thanksgiving at the Table

The Lord's Prayer

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

Distribution of Communion

Believing in the real presence of Christ, we invite all present to participate in the Sacrament of Holy Communion. All who are baptized and believe that Jesus Christ is present in the gifts of bread and wine are welcome at the Lord's table. Those who do not wish to receive communion and children who are not yet receiving communion may come forward for a blessing.

Communion is distributed by continuous distribution. Today we will be using two stations. Please come forward by the center aisle to receive the wafer from the pastor, and then, receive a cup of wine (light colored drink in the outer rings of the tray) or grape juice (darker colored drink in the center of the trays) from the communion assistant. Gluten-free wafers are available in the small gold dish on the paten. You may place your empty cups in the baskets at the ends of the front pews as you return to your seats by the side aisles.

Songs During Distribution

"Your Little Ones, Dear Lord"

Your little ones, dear Lord, are we,
and come your lowly bed to see;
enlighten ev'ry soul and mind,
that we the way to you may find.

With songs we hasten you to greet,
and kiss the ground before your feet.
Oh, blessed hour, oh, sweetest night that gave you birth, our soul's delight.

Oh, draw us wholly to you, Lord, and to us all your grace accord;
true faith and love to us impart,
that we may hold you in our heart.

Until at last we too proclaim,
with all your saints, your glorious name;
in paradise our songs renew,
and praise you as the angels do.

"Hark! The Herald Angels Sing"

Hark! The herald angels sing,
Glory to the newborn king;
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful, all you nations, rise;
join the triumph of the skies;
with angelic hosts proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!"

Refrain

Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn king!"

Christ, by highest heav'n adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord, late in time behold him come,
offspring of a virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see!
Hail, incarnate deity!
Pleased as man with us to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel! Refrain

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of peace!
Hail the Sun of righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
ris'n with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise each child of earth,
born to give us second birth. Refrain

Post-Communion Blessing and Prayer

Candle Lighting

Please stand. The lighted candle is never tilted, but is always held upright when giving light to another. Parents, please assist the children if they are holding a candle.

Hymn of Light

"Silent Night, Holy Night!"

Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy Infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight;
glories stream from heaven afar, heav'nly hosts sing, alleluia!
Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from your holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at your birth, Jesus, Lord, at your birth.

Christmas Eve Prayer

P Loving God, Help us remember the birth of Jesus, that we may share in the song of the angels,
the gladness of the shepherds,
and worship of the wise men.

Close the door of hate and open the door of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ brings,
and teach us to be merry with clear hearts.

May the Christmas morning make us happy to be your children, and Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus' sake.

C Amen.

Blessing

P May you be filled with the wonder of Mary, the obedience of Joseph, the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the determination of the magi, and the peace of the Christ Child. Almighty God, Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit bless you now and forever.

C Amen.

The candles are extinguished.

Recessional Hymn

"Joy to the World"

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her king; let ev'ry heart prepare him room and heav'n and nature sing, and heav'n and nature sing, and heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns!
Let all their songs employ, while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow nor thorns infest the ground; he comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love, and wonders of his love, and wonders, wonders of his love.

Dismissal

C Peace to God's people on earth!

P Go in peace. Share the gift of Jesus.

C Thanks be to God.

Telling the New, Old Story

The author of Luke is a self-proclaimed historian. The name-dropping in this Christmas Eve gospel is Luke's effort to ground Jesus' birth in history. But make no mistake: Luke does not believe that this world-changing story should remain in history.

"In those days" (Luke 2:1), as our gospel begins, a child was born who would be called "Wonderful Counselor" and "Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6). Word of this holy birth immediately spread to the next willing hearers who could receive the good news: shepherds in that region, tending their flocks. And the story did not stop there! By the leading of a star, the news of that holy night would spread, would draw in others to venture out as messengers, witnesses, and storytellers.

Christ's birth may have happened as part of a historic timeline, but the incarnation is hardly time-bound. Christ's birth was good news "in those days" and remains good news in these days as well. The song of the angels, by their own declaration, is a song for all people, a promise for now and for all generations. It is not limited to any one time, place, nation, race, gender, class, age, or life circumstance.

Every generation longs for lasting peace. Every era in history seeks the promise of a future filled with hope and purpose. And so, to every generation, Luke offers his story—not as a history lesson but as a timeless tale of wonder, grace, and hope.

It is a story of a baby born in a most unlikely setting, and a story of some drowsy night-shift workers. It is a story of a night sky ablaze and of hearts deeply moved by the transcendent music of the spheres. It is a story we love to tell. And it is a story our world needs. Because it reminds us, each time we hear it, that God is establishing endless peace, justice, and righteousness, "from this time onward and forevermore" (Isaiah 9:7).
